At some point, they moved to Louisville, KY.

He was of gigantic statue. He was shot and instantly killed in Louisa Co., VA by Capt. W. B. Pendleton, a former member of the Legislature, and a leading citizen. There had been bad blood between the men for some time, and when they accidentally met, a quarrel followed. Capt. Pendleton was a one-legged man, having lost a limb at Cedar Creek in the Civil War. Francisco drew his pistol first and fired three shots, one knocking Capt. Pendleton's crutch from under him, Capt. Pendleton then pulled a weapon and fired one shot, killing Francisco instantly. Francisco had spent some time in a lunatic asylum and was much feared on account of his size and strength.

Victoria Marshall Harris Massie, 88, of Louisa, died Sunday, March 23, 2008.

The widow of G. William Massie, she is survived by her son, George W. Massie Jr.; and daughter, Martha Brooke Massie; sister, Louise H. Massie; brothers, Fred N. Harris and S. Dick Harris; and a number of nieces and nephews.

The daughter of William Overton Harris and Mary Todd Harris, Vicky was born in Spotsylvania and grew up on the Harris family farm there.

She was a graduate from Mary Washington College in 1940 and then taught school on the Eastern Shore and in Louisa County. After earning a Master's Degree in Library Science from William and Mary, she worked in the Portsmouth and Orange County libraries. For 20 years she was a librarian for Louisa County schools, in charge of the bookmobile, serving all the county elementary schools.

She was a long-time member of Goldmine Baptist Church. She taught Sunday School there for years and served in the Women's Missionary Union. As a volunteer she also tutored adults, teaching them how to read.

A quiet, sweet woman, Vicky touched a lot of people. She loved to read and enjoyed time spent with friends and family. She weathered a lot of difficulties in her life with never a complaint.

James C. Settle and Betty M. Settle of Summerville celebrated their 50th anniversary on Friday, Aug. 6. The Settles met as freshmen while attending Furman University. They were married at Columbia Baptist Church in Falls Church, Virginia on Aug. 6, 1960. The couple first moved to Charleston in the mid 60s and then settled in Summerville to raise their family in 1967.

Jim began a long career as Professor of Kinesiology and the Head Track and Field and Cross Country coach at Baptist College at Charleston, which later became Charleston Southern University, and retired in 2004. He returned to coaching track and field at Goose Creek High School for a few years and is now enjoying retirement and is an active member of the Charleston Camellia Society.

Betty was first employed with the Social Security Administration and later joined New York Life Insurance Company. After a successful 20 years with New York Life she retired in 2003. Betty is now an active member of the Summerville Community Orchestra and the ABC coalition. Jim and Betty have been active members of the Summerville Baptist Church since their move to Summerville.

The Settles enjoyed a weekend of celebration with their children and their families: J. Todd Settle of Charleston, Timothy C. Settle of Simpsonville, SC, his wife Rumiko and their daughter Mia Nicole, Ross H. Settle of Summerville, his wife Christy and sons Jacob and Trenton Locklaire, Paige S. Jones of Summerville, her husband Tim and their daughters Jordyn and Ansley. Betty's brother, Jim, and his daughter Li of Tallahassee, Florida were also in attendance for the festivities.

Education: Miami University, Oxford, OH, George Washington University

Every summer from about age 10 to 18 I would go down to Quince's and Louise's house and work on the farm for a couple of weeks. They were saints because I was a stereotypical obnoxious teenager and, looking back, must have given them some anxious moments. But they let me come back year after year. They treated me like one of their children and I think of them as being second parents. I learned a lot from them.

I went to college at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio and did graduate work at The George Washington University in DC. My early career was on the City Manager career track in Fairfax County, Virginia and Montgomery County, Maryland, and then moved to St. Petersburg, Florida. After a year or so there I decided to do what I had always wanted to do, which was become a lawyer, and went to Florida State University in Tallahassee. Met my wife there, Janice Scott from St. Petersburg, and we practiced law together for many years. She's now the senior attorney for the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court and I'm semi-retired at age 73, but still represent reinsurance clients (insurance for insurance companies) before the legislature and executive branch of the state government. We have a daughter, Li XinTao Massie, who we adopted from Guangzhou, China, and who is now a senior at the University of Florida and will graduate in May. She plans to get a Masters in International Relations next year and then go to law school. She's the best thing that ever happened to us.

We live in Tallahassee on a small farm with some retired horses from our unexpected racing venture back in the 80's and 90's.

Daniel Thomas Chick, age 72, of Wilmington passed away peacefully in the warm embrace of his family on February 8, 2015 at the Lower Cape Fear Hospice and LifeCareCenter.

Dan was born on September 1, 1942, in Hanover County, VA, the son of Bessie Armstrong Simmons and the late Thomas Rutherford Chick. He is also predeceased by a brother Donald Rutherford Chick.

He is survived by his beloved wife of forty years, Betty Smith Chick; children, Sharon Lynn Featherston (Brooks), Daniel Todd Chick, and David Thomas Chick (Jennifer); stepchildren, Kimberly Kaye Walker (Gary) and Charles Jack Turnbill, Jr. (Wendy); eleven grandchildren, one great grandchild, his mother Bessie Armstrong Simmons, brother, Stephen Hancock Chick (Mildred), and many cherished extended family members and friends.

Daniel worked for many years as an operational management leader in the Meat Processing Industry with various companies including HyGrade Food Products, Thorn Apple Valley and Smithfield Foods.

He was an avid auto racing fan, loved hiking and being outdoors. He was creative and artistic, which showed in his love of drawing and painting. Most of all he was devoted to his family and cherished the time he spent with them.

Mother: Alice Latine Francisco (26 Apr 1923-19 Oct 2013)
Education: University of Chicago 1976 B.S. Mathematics

He grew up in Louisville, KY.

Mr Scott was a community organizer known for his work in environmental health. He was a tireless advocate for the reduction of lead hazards for children. He was a regular contributor to the Washington Post Style Invitational and more proud of being a Loser than having an Inker. Family and friends will fondly remember him for his love of challenging crossword puzzles, dogs and cats (especially strays), local and national politics, a good chocolate chip cookie, and Converse "Chuck" sneakers. He was gentle and kind, just a really good guy.

He worked in community organizing and as advocate to reduce lead poisoning in Chicago and New Jersey before coming to Washington. Mr. Scott came to Washington in 1997 and worked for 12 years with the Alliance for Healthy Homes. He participated in advocacy efforts to reduce lead levels in water in the District and elsewhere throughout the country. He often provided testimony at legislative hearings and managed projects examining toxic substances in homes. He was a frequent source for journalists reporting on environmental matters. At the time of his death, Mr. Scott was a policy and outreach coordinator at Parents for Nontoxic Alternatives, where he was a co-investigator on a foundation-sponsored study of national policy on lead in drinking water. He was also a community organizer for The Arc, which provides assistance to people with developmental disabilities.

HA!! Great minds. I have wondered all my life the meaning of my name. All I knew was mama's uncle went to TX, got engaged, came back to Mecklenburg to settle up and go back to live. BUT he died before he could leave. He'd asked Grandma to name the baby ZADY, if it was a girl, after his fiance. Then when she was in hsp. once, a Jewish vol. told her it was Jewish but OF COURSE I didn't write it down. So got on the Internet a few months ago and found it's Yiddish for grandmother and grandfather-spelt a little different-and means protector-I think. So I think I've lived up to my name.

In 1997, at the University of North Carolina at Asheville, I learned how to browse the internet. One question had lingered long on my twenty year old mind; what does my name mean? After all, Malindi is a town on the coast of Kenya. My Father (Bibb) visited Kenya in 1967 and reported that they spoke a beautiful version of the Queen's English. Surely, I thought, there's a deeper meaning to my name! So I searched the World Wide Web for a Swahili-to-English dictionary. The search results returned horrifying information. Apparently, Malindi was Swahili for 'cesspool'. Back then, I didn't have a cell phone so I had to go back to my apartment to telephone my Father on a landline. When he answered, I unleashed a mighty amount of horror upon him. "Cesspool?? You named me after a CESSPOOL???" Luckily, he's a laid back guy & handled the whole situation much better than I. "Hey," he said, "People think I was named after something a baby drools on! You know who you are. Deal with it." Since then, I've only told a handful of people what my name means, and never, ever have I volunteered the information. It's embarrassing!

Fast forward to 2 hours ago in the conference room at my office. An African woman came in to speak to us about her friend. Her accent puzzled me and I asked her where she was from. After all, she spoke with in a slightly Southern version of the Queen's English. "Kenya," she said. "My name is Malindi!," I exclaimed. We talked, and she revealed to me that she spoke 13 languages. "So," I said, "you certainly know what my name means in Swahili." Of course she did. "Malindi means the shepherd, the one who travels with others to make sure they are safe." "You mean I'm not a cesspool?" I asked. Her face conveyed bewilderment at the question. "Malindi means shepherd," she reassured.

Cosmically, I can make total sense of shepherd. Then again I would take anything over cesspool. And I called Dad and apologized for my tirade twenty years ago. He's still laid back. Thank goodness some things never change.
