Mary E. Grimes

Suffolk - Our Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother , Mary Ellen Grimes quietly left us on March 9, 2013 to go to her heavenly home. She was born on December 20, 1915, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She was the youngest of four children and the only daughter of Eva and Harry Lyle.

Mary lived in Richmond 70 years before moving to Suffolk to live with her daughter. She was preceded in death by her husband of 54 years, Robert F. Grimes. Mary Ellen loved her family and her passion was her yard. She eagerly looked forward to each spring when it was time to plant her garden. The Dorcas Sunday School class at Branch's Baptist Church was of great joy to her. The family wishes to acknowledge the caring staff at the Smithfield Riverside Convalescent for all of the loving care that was given to Mother over the last five years.

Leaving to cherish her memory her daughter Jane Grimes Schaubach and her husband, Dwight, and her son Robert F. Grimes, Jr. both of Suffolk. She is also survived by three grandsons, Jamie Schaubach and his wife Marla of Suffolk, Andrew Schaubach and his wife Hollie of Norfolk and Stephen Schaubach of San Francisco, CA. She was the Great- grandmother to Shannon, Cullen, Evan, Brylie, Elle and Noah Schaubach and Addison Yarborough.

Marie Simon Washer, his brothers, Louis Washer and Roy Washer, and his parents, Louis Washer and Edna Jordan Washer of Richmond, VA. He is survived by his children, Norman C. Washer, Jr. and Cheryl Washer, and by his son-in-law Wayne H. Mitchell. Born on August 6, 1926, Norman grew up in the Fulton Hill section of Richmond, VA, among his Garber, Boulware and Jordan relatives. He attended John Marshall High School, graduating in 1943. He was drafted and served in the Army Air Force from 1946 to 1947, where he trained as a weather observer. He attended Richmond Polytechnic Institute (now part of Virginia Commonwealth University) on the GI bill, where he lettered in sports and graduated in 1950. Following his long time fascination with trains, which he could hear from his bedroom as a child, he worked for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad (C & O) in Richmond. One of his favorite pastimes on weekends was riding trains throughout Virginia. He met his wife, Bertha, at the C& O bowling league. Married in 1955, they settled in Richmond. With the advent of the Interstate Highway System, Norman joined the Lone Star Cement Company as a salesman in 1955, promoting the company's product for highways and other uses. He and his family moved to Roanoke, Virginia in 1962, where he rose to District Sales Manager for the company. Norman retired in 1991 after 34 years of service. He never lost his love of trains, both large and small. He was a charter member of the Toy Train Association of Roanoke Valley. Upon his retirement from Lone Star, he became a volunteer at the Virginia Transportation Museum in Roanoke, and, as a member of the National Railway Historical Society, enjoyed many excursions behind the Norfolk & Western 611 and 1218 engines, now on display at the Museum. He was a member of the Train Collectors Association and was a regular at the bi-annual convention in York, Pennsylvania for 25 years. During his retirement, he first worked at the Rail Yard and then at Rick's Hobby Shop. Norman was a member of the Roanoke O-Gauge Club and assisted in the construction of the model train layout still on display at the Transportation Museum. He helped maintain the trains for several years, working mainly with his son, Norman, and friend Barry Freese. In his last years, he found a special community of friends at Famous Anthony's Restaurant in Southwest Plaza in Roanoke. Most days "Senior" was there at lunchtime, visiting both customers and staff. Published in the Roanoke Times and Richmond Times Dispatch Wednesday October 19 and Thursday October 20, 2011. Norman was interred with his wife, Bertha Simon Washer, on June 20, 2013 in Oakwood Cemetery, Plot 70, Richmond, VA.

Virginia - Warren Rockwell Lambert Jr. passed away on December 29 2014 at the Hospice House Charlottesville VA after a three month battle with two different cancers at the age of sixty eight. A native of Norfolk, VA and he was the son of the late Warren R (Sr.) and Beverly Goode Lambert.

In the late 60s, he worked as a consultant for Nissan and wrote their operations manual for the USA. His bliss was designing and building houses. But after the 1973-74 recession he took over his father's food brokerage business. In 2005 he left Norfolk and retired to beautiful Nelson County, VA.

He is survived and will be sorely missed by Virginia his wife of thirty four years, their two sons Garrison Rockwell of Afton VA and Spencer Warren of Norfolk VA and his little red dog Woody. He is also survived by his sister Blair Lloyd Wehrmann (husband Robert) of Dallas Texas, his sister in law Therese (Terry) Molyneaux Thatcher (husband Darryl) of Colorado Springs CO, two nieces and three nephews, and several cousins.

Known as Rock, Rocky and The Governor, he was larger in life literally and figuratively. He was a lifetime member of the high intelligence groups, Mensa, Intertel and the Sigma Four Society. He was too smart for this own good, told a great yarn, was insightfully witty and thought the country was going to hell in a in a hand basket. We'll see, don't count your chickens, he was frequently right.
